For the last two years, she has been recognised among the Definitive List of Women CEO's of Africa's top listed companies.

Keabetswe spent the early part of her career in South Africa as a consultant in various organisations in the telcom and banking industries, where her passion for innovation and technology was sharpened. She subsequently relocated back to Botswana where she joined the Bank, and has over the last twelve years, held positions such as the Head of Core Banking Applications, Head of IT and the Chief Operating Officer - overseeing bank projects, programs, and initiatives to ensure the business operates in a stable environment.
